BORN FROM CRICKET STUMPS AND CROQUET MALLETS

In 1867 Henry Burbidge founded his woodworking company with a capital of ten shillings at the age of 40. Our family business has flourished over the years, surviving countless economic recessions, a technological revolution and two world wars – even the destruction of the factory during the Coventry Blitz was seen as just an interruption to proceedings.

Originally work involved making wooden sports equipment such as cricket stumps and croquet mallets. However, across the decades, Burbidge continually reinvented itself making a diverse range of products from timber, such as drumsticks, guitar bodies and recorders for the musical instrument market in the 1950s along with stiletto heels and wooden components for Ten Pin Bowling alleys.

As the Midlands car industry boomed in the '60s, our location enabled us to secure a contract manufacturing wooden parts for the Morris Traveller and even plywood components for Black & Decker Workmates.

In the early '70s, we introduced our first kitchen range, maximising our rich woodworking legacy and talent for design to offer a superior, solid oak option in a marketplace flooded with low budget designs.

Family has always been at the core of the Burbidge business and we are proud that this solid family framework has been a major attribute to our sustained success throughout the years.

Today with the fifth generation now at the helm, Burbidge & Son is widely recognised as one of the leading UK kitchen makers in the industry, thanks to this strong heritage.

A lovely yarn, but why does this matter to me you ask?

Above all because it demonstrates that you are in reassuringly experienced hands ...

You are also buying a piece of furniture that has been carefully made in our workshops in the heart of the country, crafted by long-serving and highly skilled UK-based specialists.

WELCOME TO OUR KITCHEN MAKERS
LAY-ON COLLECTION

Our Kitchen Makers Lay-on collection demonstrates attention to detail and authenticity to its core.

Now five ranges strong, our Lay-on collection embraces classic and modern designs, boasting sizing, colour and accessory options to provide freedom of personalisation. Like siblings, each have their own distinct characteristics, yet are united by beautifully hand-crafted credentials borne out of the same, fine Burbidge ancestry.

We're makers, not assemblers, our kitchens are not off-the-shelf and are unique to their owners. We produce all the cabinetry in our workshops, putting us in complete control of quality and consistency, whilst enabling us to create a kitchen that perfectly fits your home.

AN IN-FRAME EFFECT
KITCHEN DESIGN COMBINING
LUXURY AND AFFORDABILITY

Hepworth

Our passion for using quality materials runs through the Hepworth design. The painted finish subtly reveals the delicate figuring of the door's woodgrain framing beneath. This well-crafted door design references the past, but feels fresh and contemporary. The neat detail line which runs around the door gives the impression of being an in-frame kitchen yet as a standard door.

Just as every kitchen is used differently, every kitchen is built differently. This is where the Burbidge experience comes to the fore. We know how to overcome - or work with - obstacles and awkward places in properties old and new. We are trusted to make spaces workable and craft something that fully matches your vision and meets your specific needs.

With a Kitchen Makers scheme, we are able to produce a wealth of made to measure features and bespoke elements, from personalised colour options to exclusive door sizes. So, there's no untidy angles, no idle gaps and above all, no compromises.

Malton

Malton is the perfect example of this iconic design with its hallmark traits of simplicity, functionality, and unparalleled craftsmanship. Its unadorned, slim-line framing embodies the latest trends in kitchen furniture design, where the appeal is in the simple, elegant proportions which allow the beauty of the delicate woodgrain to shine through. The perfect backdrop for your choice of painted finish.

COLOURS

We've been curating tints and hues long before curating became an interiors buzzword, because we know that colour is the one area where you can really make your mark and stamp your personality.

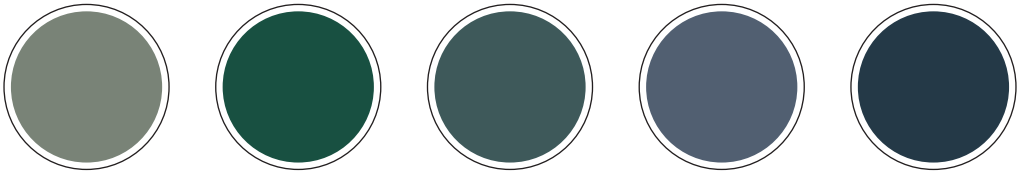

Bone (BO) | Chalk (CH) | French Grey (45) | Pale Smoke (PK) | Putty (PU)

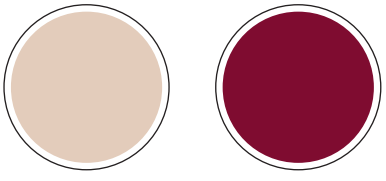

Soft Grey (SG) | Cashmere (CA) | Gravel (GV) | Mink (MK) | Seal Grey (GE)

Charcoal (CO) | All Black (BK) | Soft Moss (SO) | Fjord Green (FJ) | Thyme (TH)

Reed Green (RE) | Mallard Green (MG) | Baltic Green (BT) | Pale Navy (PY) | Prussian Blue (PL)

Plaster (PT) | English Red (ER)

We also know that colour is clever, which is why our palette of 22 painted colours is just as strong on the light-introducing neutrals, as it is with braver, bolder mood-making shades.

Trust our judgement and be inspired from our expert choices. Take our lead when it comes to using colour to craft, harmonize, or invigorate your kitchen design.

However you decide to use colour, your kitchen furniture is expertly hand-sprayed by our skilled technicians in the Burbidge UK workshop using paints that guarantee colour-fastness whilst having a low environmental impact. This quality commitment achieves perfect results, highlighting the subtle beauty of your kitchen's wood grain beneath your colour.

22 shades are available for you to choose the perfect colour combination, but if you can't find your perfect match, then opt for the ultimate in personalisation - our bespoke painted service means we can accurately match your painted kitchen to a colour swatch from any manufacturer. This gives you complete freedom, and lets you be as brave or subtle as you need or want to be.

HARDWARE

We have taken the time to assemble a well-considered collection of handles and knobs, giving you the creative freedom to accessorise your beautifully crafted timber cabinetry.
